14th Mini-Herpesvirus Workshop

Friday, 20 September 2019, Braunschweig

Aim:

This informal meeting provides an opportunity for young herpesvirus researchers to present their data to a knowledgeable audience, meet colleagues, and to initiate productive collaborations. Graduate students and postdocs can present their work as short oral presentations, which will be selected from submitted abstracts.

This year's Keynote lectures will be given by David Knipe (Harvard University, Boston, MA) and by Cliona Rooney (Baylor University, Houston, TX).

When and where:

The 14th Mini Herpesvirus Workshop will be held on Friday, September 20, 2019, from 10 am til 5 pm in the Forum building of the Helmholtz Institute for Infection Research, Inhoffenstr. 7, 38124 Braunschweig.

Registration:

Registration will open as of June 1st.

Abstract submission will open as of July 1st and last until August 20th.

Registration fees are waived this year, if registration occurs online by the August 20th deadline.

Accommodation:

Accommodation is not provided by us, but we have booked a contingent of rooms at preferred rates. Furthermore, we can send you a list of suggested hotels and hostels on request. We also recommend checking for good offers on the web.

We look forward to seeing you in Braunschweig for the 14th Mini Herpesvirus Workshop!
